

RUBENSTEIN ASSOCIATES, INC.

Public Relations

1345 Avenue of the Americas
New York, New York 10105-0109
212-843-8000
Fax 212-843-9200

October 3, 2003

Frank Addington, Jr.
1462 Bill's Creek
Winfield, WV 25213

Dear Frank,

This letter is long overdue, but I hope still welcome.

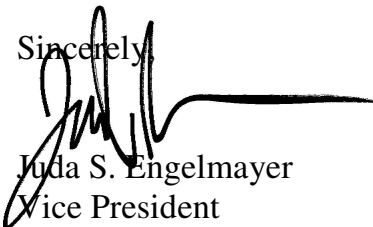

In all my time as a publicist, I have seen many fun and exciting people and events. I have been to red carpet walks for Hollywood stars and helped cut down and transfer the Rockefeller Christmas Tree, and each experience was unique and rewarding for me. However, meeting you over the summer at the 42nd World Archery Championships at New York City's Tavern of the Green and in Van Cortlandt Park, was one of my career highlights.

The Olympic qualifier brought hundreds of competitors, but you brought the fun and spirit of the games to New York, and you were such a delight for the adults and children you entertained. You made a believer of Jeanie Moos and me on the Asprin Busting, and I was able to stand near a true star.

On behalf of the NYC2012 organization and my agency, I thank you for your attendance and participation. You helped us generate the buzz for the successful week we had in the media and on the fields.

Be well.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Juda S. Engelmayer', with a long horizontal flourish extending to the right.

Juda S. Engelmayer
Vice President